

ACCELERATING LITERACY GROWTH

2021 22

Boost Reading is a research-based, evidence-based, and culturally responsive literacy intervention designed to accelerate literacy growth for students in grades 1-5. It is a comprehensive program that includes explicit instruction in phonics, reading fluency, and comprehension. The program is designed to be implemented in a small group setting, allowing for individualized instruction and support for each student.

Boost Reading is a research-based, evidence-based, and culturally responsive literacy intervention designed to accelerate literacy growth for students in grades 1-5. It is a comprehensive program that includes explicit instruction in phonics, reading fluency, and comprehension. The program is designed to be implemented in a small group setting, allowing for individualized instruction and support for each student.

This study meets Tier 2 Moderate ESSA Evidence.

Boost Reading is a research-based, evidence-based, and culturally responsive literacy intervention designed to accelerate literacy growth for students in grades 1-5. It is a comprehensive program that includes explicit instruction in phonics, reading fluency, and comprehension. The program is designed to be implemented in a small group setting, allowing for individualized instruction and support for each student.

A-risk students

A personalized reading program powered by the Science of Reading

ESSA Tier 2 Moderate Evidence Rating

This national research study meets the Every Student Succeeds Act's (ESSA) Tier 2 Moderate Evidence criteria, showing significant and positive effects on student outcomes.